

Interior design internship in design studio

The Invisible Party is a boutique design studio in Amsterdam creating brand design for the hotel and retail industry on an international scale. Clients include W Hotels, The Student Hotel, and multiple retail and hospitality clients at home and abroad.

As an intern you will be fully involved in the design team and you will experience the creative process from concept design to implementation. We are looking for someone who is passionate about design, art, graphics, products and interiors, a conceptual thinker, responsible, eager to learn and has a great eye for detail. You are expected to be able to work in a fast paced environment and with tight deadlines.

The internship is a minimum of 4 months. We are looking for someone who can work independently as well as in a team, who can think conceptually and is currently advanced in their bachelor studies in an interior design school. You will need to be skilled in the use of Vectorworks, and speak and write English fluently, and preferably Dutch or an additional language.

The role would consist on the following:

- Assist with the development of interior concepts based on client brief, vision, and architectural concepts and specificities.
- Assist the architectural design team to define finishes, textures, space planning and furnitures for the projects
- Assist with the preparation of detailed technical drawings, plans and elevations for the projects
- Assist on building the clients presentations

We welcome Dutch and international students to apply. You will need to be in possession of a student visa for the Netherlands. We offer a market conform internship allowance.

If you want to join our party, send your motivation letter, cv and your portfolio to Benjamin Sejourné, internship@theinvisibleparty.com with in the subject line "Internship Graphic Design - Your first + last name".

Start date: as soon as possible
